We have information that you reside outside the Province of Alberta but were injured on the date shown above in a work-related accident within Alberta.

Pursuant to Section 29 of the Workers' Compensation Act of Alberta (the "WCA") and Section 4.1 of the Interjurisdictional Agreement on Workers' Compensation, you may have the right to claim compensation under the WCA of Alberta, or alternatively to claim compensation or another remedy under the law of the place in which you reside.

You should consider this matter carefully and you may wish to contact the workers' compensation agency in the province of territory where you reside in order to determine your rights there. If you decide to claim compensation in Alberta, you should complete the election portion of this form and return it.

If we have not heard from you within thirty days, we will assume that you do not wish to claim in Alberta and we will take no further action in this matter.

THE WORKERS' COMPENSATION ACT

EXTRACT FROM SECTION 29 (1)

Agreements with other provinces or territories

29 (1) The Board may enter into an agreement with the workers' compensation board or similar body in another province or territory to provide for the payment of compensation for injuries to workers who are employed under conditions such that part of the work incidental to the employment is performed in Alberta and part of the work is performed in that other province or territory, in order to ensure that those workers or their dependants receive compensation either in conformity with this Act or in conformity with the Act in force in the other province or territory relating to workers' compensation and to avoid a duplication of assessments.

Board's entitlement to information

36 The Board may require from any person entitled to compensation, whether a worker or dependant, particulars of that person's place of residence, address and other information relative to the disability and compensation, that it considers necessary, and pending the receipt of those particulars the Board may withhold compensation payments.

INTERJURISDICTIONAL AGREEMENT ON WORKERS' COMPENSATION

Election by Beneficiary

4.1 Where there may be entitlement to benefits in more than one jurisdiction, the beneficiary shall be required by the Adjudicating Board to elect not to claim from other jurisdictions if the claim is accepted, and the Adjudicating Board shall advise the other jurisdictions where the claim could be made, of the election, adjudication and disposition of the claim.
