About Our Current Campaign

The campaign purpose

Engage employers, new Canadians and all workers in understanding and overcoming the language barriers faced by many new Canadian workers.

What's it about?

The campaign focuses on the issue of overcoming language barriers in the workplace to ensure all workers are aware of their rights at work and know how to fulfill their responsibilities when it comes to workplace safety and health.

What are the key messages?

- It's hard to understand safety when you don't understand the language.
- SAFE Work Manitoba provides resources in 18 languages.
- Employers are responsible for workplace safety and health – including making sure you understand the training you receive to help you work safely.

Where will you see it?

TV, radio, workplace posters, online, restaurant and cabaret ads, and outdoor billboards.
